Pictures are up! Those of you who attended already know but the party was fantastic. Kudos to Elaina for putting toget the BEST 30th BIRTHDAY EVER! I've got my work ahead of me for hers in January. Good food, good drinks, good company. Most impressive to me was the complete lack of injuries. Most everything went without a hitch. We had a pretty good turnout for Friday night and the house was completely packed Saturday so we had a great time camping in the yard. We hiked Mt. Cardigan Monday morning, what a full weekend. Check out the gallery.
